METHOD OF SEAMLESS ZCLV/PCAV RECORDING FOR PACKET WRITING

Abstract

When recording to an optical disk under zoned constant linear velocity (ZCLV) or partial constant angular velocity (PCAV) control, a plurality of super link points are dynamically set in the packet link areas. In this way, packet units recorded on a track of the optical disk are kept continuous.